FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ACG Maryland Announces Deal of the Year Award Recipient

BALTIMORE, MD, March 25, 2015 - The Association for Corporate Growth – Maryland Chapter, the premier network for middle market dealmakers, recognizes Bowles Fluidics Corporation’s sale to Morgenthaler Private Equity as the winner for the prestigious Deal of the Year Award.

Bowles Fluidics Corporation’s (“Bowles Fluidics”) acquisition has enabled the company to execute its multi-faceted growth plan and continue high level investments post-acquisition. Bowles Fluidics has built an excellent reputation due to its engineering expertise, customer service, and product innovation. This acquisition affirms the company’s commitment to accelerating growth and providing customers with the highest levels of product quality, innovation, and service. The Deal of the Year Award recognizes and honors business transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, financings, alliances and IPOs, that have impacted our region, and highlights those companies and individuals who were successful in their pursuit of corporate growth through such activity.

Winners were honored at the Deal of the Year Gala on Wednesday, March 11, 2015 at the Baltimore Museum of Industry alongside influential leaders in corporate development, private equity, investment banking, and other corporate professionals.
